

1. A Brief Bio of Volunteer Honoree - Dr. Hani Emari, PMP

It's Spotlight Volunteer time. This article is the first Volunteer Spotlight of 2020, and excitement is in the Air. Project Management Institute Great Lakes Chapter (PMIGLC) has no shortage of elite members to nominate for their volunteerism within the chapter. Dr. Hani Emari, PMP, is the Spotlight Volunteer for February 2020. Hani has an extensive professional Portfolio, yet he takes time to volunteer for PMIGLC.

Dr. Emari's dedication to PMIGLC has changed how we do business, in a good way! Dr. Emari has been a member of the chapter since August 2018 and currently serves as the Director of Corporate Outreach. Dr. Emari has helped organize the Construction Community to bring Construction Corporate Support and Sponsorship to our PMIGLC events.

As a Project Management Professional, his work experience is impressive. Dr. Hani has managed over 25 large-scale projects, from design and engineering to construction and facility management. Dr. Emari is equipped with technical knowledge, interpersonal skills, and a broad market to create relationships to deliver business outcomes through quality project outputs. He obtained his PMP Certification in 2016, his Doctorate of Business Administration in Business Strategic Planning to complement his Project Management and Business Development experience. Dr. Emari provides mentoring and coaching to a variety of industries and volunteers as a PMP Exam Prep instructor for PMIGLC. Dr. Emari, currently employed as a Project Quality Manager with Brinker on two DTE Energy Projects, is also an adjunct faculty at Wayne State University's Civil & Environmental Engineering Department in the Construction Engineering & Management Program. PMIGLC is proud to announce the Spotlight Volunteer honoree Dr. Hani Emari. Congratulation looks good on YOU!
